Magnetic North: Sea Voyage to Svalbard
 Jenna Butler
 From the endangered Canadian boreal forest to the environmentally threatened Svalbard archipelago off the coast of Norway, Jenna Butler takes us on a sea voyage that connects continents and traces the impacts of climate change on northern lands.

Waiting: An Anthology of Essays
 Rona Altrows and Julie Sedivy
 Waiting, that most human of experiences, saturates all of our lives. We spend part of each day waiting—for birth, death, appointments, acceptance, forgiveness, redemption. These thirty-two personal essays are as much about hope as about waiting.

The Stories Were Not Told
 Sandra Semchuk
 From 1914 to 1920, thousands of men who had immigrated to Canada from the Austro-Hungarian Empire were imprisoned as "enemy aliens." Through oral history and photography, Sandra Semchuk examines the consequences of Canada's first internment.

Sam Steele: A Biography
 Rod Macleod
 Drawing on the vast Steele archive at the University of Alberta, this comprehensive biography vividly recounts some of the most significant events of the first fifty years of Canadian Confederation from the perspective of a military leader.
