Book Publishers Association of Alberta Welcomes New Executive Director

Edmonton — The Book Publishers Association of Alberta (BPAA) is pleased to announce Megan Bishop as their new Executive Director.

“Megan has worked with the BPAA for the past four years, and will bring her amazing skills and talents to the position,” says BPAA President Matt Bowes. “We look forward to continuing to work with Megan as she leads the BPAA forward.”

“We also want to acknowledge and thank outgoing Executive Director, Kieran Leblanc, for her significant contributions to the book publishing industry and to the members of the BPAA over the past 16 years. She will be greatly missed!”
